the Coalition

Reimagine Child Safety Bay Area and Beyond (RCSBAB) is a new branch of Reimagine Child Safety Coalition. We aspire to be led by the experiences of people impacted by the child welfare system and work together to create change

Hear from system-impacted individuals

Hear from folks who have been involved with the family policing system(CPS), who are now working to re imagine child safety and advocate for change and an opportunity of membership.

Share your thoughts and experiences

RCSBAB wants to base our goals on the input of impacted people so we can help create the changes that are most needed. We want to know about your experiences and y solutions you want to see.

Everyone is Welcome

We encourage parents, children, and anyone who identifies as system-impacted to attend the virtual town hall. We plan to share supportive resources facilitate supportive connections in a safe trauma informed space. This is a safe non mandated reporter space.
